

The Letter "S"

Learning to read involves:

- Knowing that letters are different from each other
- Knowing the names and sounds of letters
- Noticing letters everywhere

This helps children figure out how to say written words.

Have your child practice writing the letter "S."

What can they see in the picture below that begins with the letter "S"?

What other things can they think of that begin with the letter "S"?

